Good news for a self-proclaimed phone dropper.

“I love my OtterBox case. Since I have gotten it, I don't worry about my phone dropping or breaking. When it drops I just pick it up, dust it off and continue on with my day,” said Correia. “I paid a lot of money for my BlackBerry so it's nice to know my investment is safe.”

Between all the travel, signing new swim teams, ensuring promotional orders are filled and being accessible to coaches, Correia doesn't have the time to hassle with phone replacements. As an avid OtterBox user for the past three months, she truly experiences the benefit of protecting on the go.
